

The last Roman Emperor is deposed

476

St. Benedict founds the Benedictine Order

529

570

Muhammad is born

638

A Muslim army captures Jerusalem

Charlemagne is crowned Holy Roman Emperor

800

885

Vikings attack Paris

William the Conqueror invades England

1066

1095

Pope Urban II calls for the First Crusade

Hildegarde is born

1098

c. 1101

Hildegarde begins receiving visions

The crusaders capture Jerusalem

1099

c. 1106

Hildegarde is enclosed with Jutta at Disibodenberg

1141

Hildegarde receives instructions from the Living Light to record her visions

The Second Crusade begins

1145

1148

Pope Eugenius III sends a commission to test Hildegarde's visions

Hildegarde founds the monastery of Rupertsberg

1150

c. 1160

Hildegarde begins preaching publicly

The first cornerstone of Notre-Dame Cathedral is laid in Paris

1163

1165

Hildegarde founds the monastery of Ebingen

Hildegarde dies on September 17

1179

1492

Columbus sails from Spain to the Americas

Hildegarde's name is taken up in the Roman Martyrology

16th c.

2012

Pope Benedict XVI declares Hildegarde a saint and Doctor of the Church

